MORAL OF THE STORY

You see dear children a moral has this tale

As when your Grandma or Grandad are getting older and maybe a bit forgetful or not able to run around like the spring chickens their once were.

Remember Grandma and Grandad have the best hugs and tell the best bedtime stories and have special permission to spoil you rotten.

Thanks to Dr Carol Soloway that's sound advice.

The author is now going to have well earned rest to spend with his beloved grandchildren.

So good night and sweet dreams
